

SLAV MASTERCLASS SERIES 2020

An Online Masterclass Series Powering Learning: with Kevin Hennah

Session One – Genrefication Showcase

Thursday July 23

Implementing a genre-based layout across both Fiction and Non-fiction may be a powerful way to build loan stats and bolster the relevance of libraries. Kevin Hennah strongly believes this is so and his results back up his belief. Impressive photographs from schools that have implemented Kevin's advice coupled with equally impressive usage stats may inspire you to reinvent your collection.

Session Two – Inspired Library Layout & Seating

Wednesday August 19

Learning spaces in libraries must offer a point of difference over classrooms and there's simply nothing engaging about an aisle! Join Kevin Hennah as he challenges traditional ideas on library layout and seating whilst delivering practical advice at all budget-levels.

Session repeated on the day

Choose from:

- 10.00am to 11.30am
- 4.00pm to 5.30pm

Session Three – High-Impact, Low-Budget Library Makeovers

Thursday September 17

Innovation is not dependent on a generous funding! Kevin Henna demonstrates this with sophisticated and highly creative ideas for display and decoration which draw inspiration from retail, museums and art galleries.
