

SLAV MASTERCLASS SERIES 2022

Thursday December 1
2pm to 4.00pm

Digital Curation Tools

This masterclass explores different platforms for curating digital resources to support learning and teaching. Speakers will share their experience with Libguides, LearnPath and Schoolbox for curating resources.

Guest Speakers

Libguides: Evolution in practice

Kate Hoogenraad

Kate will consider the evolution of her school's Libguides page from 2012 to now. She has drawn on inspiration from other school's Libguides seen at past Masterclasses, their Libguides are now user friendly and used. The process has been completed without IT language skills or help – so you can do it too!

Kate Hoogenraad is a Librarian at Ivanhoe Grammar School, Melbourne

Using Schoolbox to curate a wonderful Library Page

Julie Pagliaro and Vanessa Will

Covering levels from Prep to 12, Julie and Vanessa will share how they have used Schoolbox to curate and promote resources and services.

Julie Pagliaro is Head of Libraries at St Kevin's College and Vanessa Will is a Teacher Librarian at St Kevin's College.

Learn Paths

Kath Talbot

Kath will explore using LearnPath to resource teaching and learning and advocating the role of the teacher librarian.

Kath Talbot is a Teacher Librarian at St Francis Xavier College, ACT

Libguides: Research guides to inspire curiosity Di Ruffles and Scott Williams

Di and Scott will provide an overview of their LibGuides creation process and focus on how they ensure their LibGuides are relevant to teachers and students as well as connected to the Victorian and Australian Curriculum. Di and Scott also make use of the widgets that are available that can easily be embedded into the guides.

Di Ruffles is Director of Library Services at Melbourne Grammar and Scott Williams is a Library Technician at Melbourne Grammar currently completing a Masters of Librarianship.

Padlet

A padlet of resources will be created to support this event.

REGISTRATION

All registrants will receive a recording of the session, access to the padlet and a participation certificate on request.
